1. The false and hypocritical dictator Tito, whose stay in power is threatened, shamelessly affirmed in a speech that 18 months after the Cominform resolution he and his people march with determination toward socialism and that the Marxist-Leninist-Stalinist line is scrupulously adhered to in the rebuilding of the country. He also accused the Soviet Union of attempting to obstruct the forward progress of his heroic people, in which intent, he asserted, it will not succeed.

The forward progress of his heroic people, in which intent, he it will not succeed.

5. Agents of the ODB, in perfect accord with Ferruccio Parri, Alcide De Gasperi, Carlo Sforza and Randolfo Pacciardi, continually provoke the peaceful people of Trieste by making attempts on the lives of its citizens. Maria Bernetic and I were to be the victims of a carefully staged plan in Skoflje.¹ But the Party is careful not to fall into traps set by Titoist agents or the Italians.
6. It must not be forgotten that a peace treaty with Austria will not be signed if the Free Territory of Trieste problem is not solved according to the Treaty of Peace. The Party will see its way through this snare pit which the city of Trieste has become and thanks are extended to the Soviet Union which has once again upset the enemy's plans to solve the problem on his own. They are in error if they believe that the USSR will not help the Party in Trieste as it helps at all times, wherever it may be, those people who fight for peace.²

25X1A 1. [REDACTED] It is probable that the "staged plan in Skoflje" is a fabrication and may have been utilized by Vidali as a provocation measure.

25X1X 2. [REDACTED] The pro-Cominform (Vidali) Communist Party of Trieste recently sent a note of thanks to Jacob Malik in Paris for his defense of "Trieste interests".
